

Heart of Colorado FiberArts Guild

February 2018 Newsletter

From the President:

I vowed to myself that after I finished my current weaving project I would embark on the 2018 HCFG Challenge project. So, here I am. Yes, I have been thinking of it for some time and will now begin. My choice will be a little complicated, but that is part of the challenge. I hope many of you will consider participating in the annual challenge. It is such fun to see how everyone interprets the challenge. This year you must choose a foreign country and create something that is somehow related to that country: craft, fibers, colors, etc.; something of their chosen country that has inspired you.

What a fun meeting last time with Judy Reese presenting her Saori weaving technique. This month, another inspiration from Ruthann Schoeffield on her fiber travels in Nepal.

See you all on February 2. Don't forget your show and tell.

Karen Robinson

This Month's Program:

Date: February 2, 2018

Time: 9:30 am Social, 10:00 am Meeting

Place: Congregational United Church of Christ,
217 Crossman Ave., Buena Vista

You won't want to miss the February program. Ruthann Schoeffield will do a power point presentation on the 2013 tour of Nepal she participated in under the auspices of the nonprofit, Namio International. Ruthann was part of a group of 12 who experienced Nepalese travel and culture first-hand in their mission to improve the lives of families by teaching new fiber skills, sharing educational expertise and gaining a better understanding of third world challenges. The group was led by the founder of Namio, Magda King, who is an internationally acclaimed Spanish mountaineer. Namio International focuses on teaching women in remote villages basic knitting techniques, as well as supporting educational programs and school construction projects fostered by Namio. So be sure to be there for Ruthann's commentary describing what has to be a fascinating potpourri of her trip.

Refreshments will be courtesy of Mary Elliot and Libby Fay, with Gene Marsh volunteered for March, Sue Keyes for April, and Judy Curran for May.

Fashion Show Committee:

The fashion show is still looking for a boutique chairperson. We are visiting with a possible speaker early next month. If anyone has suggestions, please email Judy Curran or Janey Redetzke.
